

June 15, 2010

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to introduce the Archimandrite Daniel Byantoro, an Orthodox priest under the Russian Orthodox Church Outside of Russia from Indonesia, who plans to visit Orthodox Churches in America to speak on Orthodoxy in Indonesia and to raise funds to help the Orthodox Church in that country.

I fully endorse Father Daniel's work for the Orthodox Church in Indonesia and fully support his endeavors.

Father Daniel has my blessing and permission to visit parishes within the Orthodox Church in America for this purpose, providing he has the blessing from the local ruling Hierarch.

Any kindness or courtesy that may be extended to him, including hosting him and encouraging your faithful flock to attend and support this cause, will be deeply appreciated.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in black ink, starting with a cross symbol and the name 'Jonah' in a cursive script.

+ JONAH
Archbishop of Washington
Metropolitan of All America and Canada

